MESSAGE

School days are the most memorable days for children. On the occasion of Children's day I wish all the children in JNVs pursuing the education, a great day and a day of commitment to the excellence.

Being in Navodaya Vidyalayas children have ample opportunity to experience the facets of personal growth. We wish that every child dreams to climb the mountain of excellence of his/her choice. While we dream, we also need to develop the skill sets required to meet our dreams. School is the most suitable place to realize this through interaction with the peer group, teachers and the parents.

I expect that every teacher in JNV will facilitate this process of enjoyable learning environment and a happy stay together.
